

$20,000 Liquor And 13 Men Seized in Raid

Several Hundred From Theater District Watch Detectives Enter Restaurant on West 49th Street

One Says He Is Prince

Another, Protesting To Be an Artist, Is Said To Be Proprietor of the Place

Detectives, working under Lieutenant Rigney, of Inspector William Roettler's staff, late last night raided Mollat's restaurant, at 112 and 114 West Forty-ninth Street, and seized $20,000 worth of liquors. Thirteen men, including two bartenders, a head waiter, nine waiters and a man who described himself as an artist but whom the police say is proprietor of the place, were arrested.

One of the men taken says he is a prince. The raid was witnessed by several hundred persons attracted from the theater district.

Felix Pollu, of 114 West Forty-ninth Street, said to be the proprietor of the establishment, was locked up in the West Forty-seventh Street police station, charged with violation of the prohibition law.

Others locked up on the same charge are Albert Bougon, bartender, 112 West Forty-ninth Street; Maurice Raxial, head waiter, 501 West 139th Street, and John Girard, waiter, 512 West Forty-seventh Street.

Some one told James S. Shevlin, supervising prohibition enforcement agent for this district, that commuters between New York and Kew-Forest, N. Y., were carrying "it" on the hip and that they had become so bold as to draw their bottles out on the decks of steamers and take a drink. So Mr. Shevlin yesterday posted four of his agents on each of the boats plying between Manhattan and Kew-Forest. They reported a strong odor amidships on the first voyage across, which they said might have been caused by burning waste in the engine-room, or might not.

Charles R. O'Connor said forged permits for the withdrawal of spirits from licensed warehouses were again in use and that hereafter all permit holders will be required to present the original, instead of carbon copies, of permits to the dispensers. The amount of liquor to be withdrawn must also be specified in the permit and a card bearing the signature of the permit holder must be filed in Mr. O'Connor's office for purposes of comparison.

Another regulation announced yesterday by Mr. O'Connor requires the seller of liquor to insure the delivery of the article to the buyer and to stamp on each delivery the word "delivered." When permits to purchase are filed for approval the buyer must sign a letter in Mr. O'Connor's office which will be filed with the warehouse for identification.

Enforcement agents yesterday renewed their raids in New Jersey. Thirty revenue officers visited practically every saloon in Paterson and each carried search and seizure warrants. Although the owners were surprised only four gallons of gin were seized. That was at the saloon of the late Arthur A. Westervelt, known as "The Office Bar." No arrests were made.

The agents canvassed Hoboken, Jersey City and Newark and confiscated several cases of whisky. No arrests were made.

Whisky Steamship Seized
Cargo Worth $40,000 Located in St. Lawrence River

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Provincial license inspectors to-day removed from the Montreal steamship Samuel Marshall more than 1,000 cases of American and Canadian whisky and gin, valued at between $35,000 and $40,000. The vessel seized by the Canadian officials at Cardinal, Ont., on a charge of violating the Canadian customs laws, was taken to Prescott, Ont. It was en route from Montreal to Lake Ontario ports when it was held up. Its owners to-night were arranging to furnish bond for its release.

Dynamite in Ford Plant
DETROIT, Aug. 7.—Authorities are investigating what they believe may have been an attempt to dynamite a portion of the Ford Motor Company's plant here early to-day, when a quantity of dynamite, wrapped in a towel, was found by a fireman in the engine room of the dry kiln as he was about to throw rubbish into the furnace.

The dynamite was traced to one of the waste paper baskets in the factory yard, from which it is the custom to gather rubbish for burning.

Several men were detained this afternoon, but released after examination.

Retired Officer Found Dead
James Nickerson Served in Civil War; Held Major's Rank

When Mrs. Mary Fredricks, housekeeper at the rooming house at 117 West Eleventh Street, entered the room of James Nickerson, retired army officer, yesterday afternoon to arrange it, she found the occupant of the room lying across the bed dead.

She notified the authorities at Governor's Island and an officer was sent to investigate. He, in turn, notified the police. After detectives had investigated they expressed the belief that Mr. Nickerson was a victim of Bright's disease, from which he had been suffering.

Nickerson held the rank of major at the time he was retired in 1904. He was about seventy-five years old and was a veteran of the Civil War. In his room was found a bank book on the Columbia Trust Company, showing a balance of $5,000.

Man Shot in Back Refuses to Reveal Identity of Assailant
Thomas Murphy, twenty-six, a ship-fitting clerk, of 423 First Avenue, was taken from his home to Bellevue Hospital late yesterday afternoon suffering from a bullet wound in the back. The fourth finger of his left hand had been shot off. Murphy refused to reveal the identity of the person who shot him.

Murphy is said to have left his home at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was returned in a taxicab two hours later unconscious from the bullet wound.

August Sale of

Plush Wraps and Coats

Prices Much Lower Than Will Prevail Later

At last has that most beautiful of fabrics, Plush, come into its own. Prominent Furriers, recognizing how closely its glossy, deep pile surface resembles Seal, have adopted it. Expert fur-fashioners have moulded it into handsome Wraps and Coats, adorned with fine Furs.

By purchasing far in advance when materials and skins were at their lowest we are able to offer during this Sale the handsomest Plush Coats ever displayed for prices remarkably low.

All are made of Baffin or Peco Plush. Five of many fashionable models are illustrated. Many lavishly adorned with Genuine Beaver, others with a fine quality of Skunk. Still others take Australian Opossum or Taupé Moufflon as trimming. A few models are unadorned.
